REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

The 2011-2012 school year was one filled with expected challenges as well as anticipated achievement. Our mission continues to be to prepare confident, productive, lifelong learners by providing innovative educational opportunities, support and respect.

The school benefits from a dedicated and passionate staff that holds themselves accountable for learning and improving student growth and achievement. Teachers implement aspects of instruction in line with best practices and students are exposed to a balanced curriculum.

Grades K through 5 receive instruction in physical education, music, art and media in addition to core content subjects. The school remains committed to educating the whole child.

Brockington Elementary School teachers and administrators appreciate the continued support of home and community in its ongoing efforts to help each and every child reach their full academic and personal potential. We look forward to maintaining and growing a mutual respect among students, teachers, parents and community that will promote open and effective communication on the way to accomplishing our educational goals.
